An Irish priest is driving down to New York and gets stopped for speeding in Connecticut. The state trooper smells alcohol on the priest's breath and then sees an empty wine bottle on the floor of the car.

He says, "Sir, have you been drinking?"

"Just water," says the priest.....

The trooper says, 'Then why do I smell wine?'

The priest looks at the bottle and says, "Good Lord! He's done it again!"

Pope County Police Reports

Car theft, burglary reported in county

A car was reported stolen and items stolen from a storage shed recently in Pope County.

• The car theft was reported by a resident of Tyner Lane, who said his 1983 Chevrolet Caprice was taken out of his driveway on March 3 or 4. He said it was unlocked with no keys in it and that both sets of keys were still at his residence. He said the vehicle is paid for and he has no suspects. Phillip Riedmueller took the report and Rowdy Sweet was assigned.

• The burglary was between March 1 and 3 on Worthen Road where a back door of a residence was kicked in and a storage building entered, with several items taken. Items taken from the storage building included a washing machine ($200), a dryer ($200), a side-by-side refrigerator ($600), a deep freezer ($300), cast iron pots ($200), and fishing poles ($50). Deputy Damon McMillan took the report and Michael Lydon was assigned.

• A resident of West 18th Street, Russellville reported on March 5 that the lock on her storage building had been tampered with but did not gain entrance to her storage building. Deputy Luke Sawdy took the report.

• A church deacon reported on March 4 that the back door of the fellowship hall of the Mount Vernon Freewill Baptist Church, on Mount Vernon Road, was kicked in, damaging the door. Deputy Jamie Gray took the report, and Clifton Dodson was assigned.

A woman went to the doctor's office where she was seen by one of the younger doctors. After about four minutes in the examination room, she burst out screaming as she ran down the hall. An older doctor stopped her and asked what the problem was, and she told him her story.

After listening, he had her sit down and relax in another room. The older doctor marched down the hallway back to where the young doctor was writing on his clipboard.

"What's the matter with you?!" the older doctor demanded.

"Mrs. Terry is 71 years old, has four grown children and seven grandchildren, and you told her she was pregnant?"

The younger doctor continued writing and without looking up said, "Does she still have the hiccups?"

Playing with his little sister, our grandson, 5, ordered her stand in the naughty corner.

"Why did you give her a time-out when she didn't do anything wrong," his mother asked.

He explained, "She was thinking about it!"

Six retired Jewish Floridian fellows are playing poker in the condo clubhouse when Meyer loses $500 on a single hand, clutches his chest, and drops dead at the table.

Showing respect for their fallen comrade, the other five continue playing, but standing up.

At the end of the game, Finklestein looks around and asks, "So, who's gonna tell his vife?"

They cut the cards. Goldberg picks the low card and has to carry the news. They tell him to be discreet, be gentle, don't make a bad situation any worse.

"Discreet? I'm the most discreet person you'll ever meet. Discretion is my middle name. Leave it to me." Goldberg goes over to the Meyer's condo and knocks on the door.

The wife answers through the door and asks what he wants? Goldberg declares: "Your husband just lost $500 in a poker game and is afraid to come home."

"Tell him to drop dead!" yells the wife.

"I'll go tell him." says Goldberg.
