Obituaries

Shannon Joy Holden

Shannon Joy Holden, 36, of Russellville, died Wednesday, March 9, 2011, at her home.

She was born Dec. 7, 1974, in Springfield, Missouri to Lynn Holden and Jeannie Russell Holden. She was a recent graduate of Arkansas Tech University, receiving an art degree.

Survivors include a son, Henry Holden of the home; her spouse, Harry Thompson of the home; her father, Lynn Holden and his wife, Judy, of Canada; her mother, Jeannie Holden of San Antonio, Texas; a brother and sister-in-law, Dustin Randall and Stephanie Holden of San Antonio; a sister and brother-in-law, Kristen Lyn and Matthew Belcher of San Antonio; and several nephews and nieces.

The family will conduct a memorial service in Springfield, Mo. at a later date. Local arrangements are by Shinn Funeral Service of Russellville.

The online obituary and guestbook are available at www.shinnfuneral.com.

Food bank fundraiser set for March 19

Pope County Police Report

A car was reported stolen and items stolen from a storage shed recently in Pope County.

* The car theft was reported by a resident of Tyner Lane, who said his 1983 Chevrolet Caprice was taken out of his driveway on March 3 or 4. He said it was unlocked with no keys in it and that both sets of keys were still at his residence. He said the vehicle is paid for and he has no suspects. Phillip Riedmueller took the report and Rowdy Sweet was assigned.

* The burglary was between March 1 and 3 on Worthen Road where a back door of a residence was kicked in and a storage building entered, with several items taken. Items taken from the storage building included a washing machine ($200), a dryer ($200), a side-by-side refrigerator ($600), a deep freezer ($300), cast iron pots ($200), and fishing poles ($50). Deputy Damon McMillan took the report and Michael Lydon was assigned.

* A resident of West 18th Street, Russellville reported on March 5 that the lock on her storage building had been tampered with but did gain entrance to her storage building. Deputy Luke Sawdy took the report.

* A church deacon reported on March 4 that the back door of the fellowship hall of the Mount Vernon Freewill Baptist Church, on Mount Vernon Road, was kicked in, damaging the door. Deputy Jamie Gray took the report, and Clifton Dodson was assigned.
